If you are in need of accommodation letters for your winter courses click here

Accommodation letters will be requested through our new service Accommodate for the spring semester.

On Jan 11th, 13, 19th, and 21st we will have trainings on how to use Accommodate, a new service which will help students receive accommodation letters easier. You can expect an email about these trainings in December and January.

If you are in need of services and or would like to get in contact with our office please contact us by email at drc@southernct.edu or by phone at (203) 392-6828

Important Dates

Final exams: December 9th– December 15th

Fall 2020 semester ends: December 23rd
1. Get started early
Organizing study material a head of time and scheduling times with professors will help you feel more prepared for the end of semester.

2. Write a list
Write out when final exams are for each class as well any extra projects/ important due dates.

3. Ask for help
Reach out to professors or the academic success center to schedule a time for tutoring.

4. Organize
Create a study guide of all topics you need to know for your exam. Ask your professor if you are unsure.

5. Get some sleep
It's much easier to remember topics and information when you are well rested!

6. Take breaks!
Taking short breaks is important for your brain to relax and avoid burnout.

We hope you have a safe and happy winter break!
