OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION CANCELLATION POLICY

Currently, all programs abroad for the academic year are expected to operate. Southern Connecticut State University's Office of International Education (SCSU-OIE) will monitor world events and make any change to this decision on an individual course basis any time between now and the departure dates.

If Southern Connecticut State University cancels a program abroad, students will be refunded their deposits and all monies the university is able to recover from program providers. The SCSU-OIE office will make every effort to negotiate with providers for the refunds.

If a student withdraws from a program abroad at any time between now and the departure date, the student will be held to their obligation to pay the program fee in full (as the university is required to fulfill its obligation to pay program vendors), and will only be refunded recoverable expenses. In the event the price of the trip rises more than 20%, the student may withdraw and receive both recoverable funds and deposit. Students who must cancel their participation in a course abroad program must do so in writing to Dr. Erin Heidkamp, Director of the Office of International Education.

The Office of International Education will work to delay payments to providers for programs abroad as long as possible and request clearly-stated refund policies from all providers for all programs prior to payment submission. Students who wish to purchase cancellation insurance should contact their insurance provider to inquire.

If Southern Connecticut State University cancels a program abroad, OIE staff will work with individual program abroad faculty members to adapt their course, when possible, for the Southern Connecticut State University campus. This is understood to be an emergency procedure in place as a result of unusual or unforeseen world events. If a program abroad cannot be adapted to the on-campus setting, the faculty member will work to develop an alternative on-campus course for the students enrolled. If this is not possible, efforts will be made to enroll students in existing on-campus courses.

I have read and understood the information provided to me above regarding Southern Connecticut State University's Office of International Education cancellation policy, program costs, and due dates.
