

A CELEBRATION COMMEMORATING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

From Myth To Man: Martin Luther King, An Interpretation

AN ORIGINAL
ONE-MAN PLAY

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023
12:30 P.M.

(Snow Date: February 8, 2023)

Michael J. Adanti Student Center Ballroom

Free and open to the public

Join us for an original, thought-provoking, and intimate interpretation of the complex human side of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. This is not imitation and impersonation, but an authentic portrayal that will connect all generations to the mission, legacy, and humanity of the civil and human rights leader. Live performances by Southern students and special guests. Audience talkback with the playwright and actor follows the performance.

Sponsored by the Multicultural Center, with support from the MLK Committee, Division of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, Office of Alumni Relations, Integrated Communications & Marketing, and the Minority Recruitment Mentoring Committee.

For more information,
contact the
Multicultural Center,
(203) 392-5888.

To register for this event, visit:

Performance by John Ivey, '73,
M.S. '82
Actor

Written and directed by Ira Knight
Playwright and Producer

