

Participants Needed for LGBTQ Study on Inclusionary Practices at SCSU!

Researching the perceptions of LGBTQ students on inclusionary practices at Southern Connecticut State University.

Research conducted by: Jenna Curren, M.S.
Ed.D. Candidate at American International College, Springfield, MA.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Students who self-identify as LGBTQ, who are either sophomores, juniors, or seniors, and who live in on-campus housing.

WHAT

The researcher will be conducting approximately one-hour long face-to-face interviews with participants.

All interviews will be confidential and participation is voluntary.

LOCATION

At a location on campus to be disclosed upon participant acceptance.

BENEFIT

Aiding in future research on LGBTQ inclusionary practices put forth by colleges and universities and the impact on matriculation and graduation rates of LGBTQ students.

INCENTIVE: $20 Amazon gift card to participants.

WANT TO PARTICIPATE? CONTACT:

Jenna Retort at retortj1@southernct.edu with your contact information.

*Contact information will be forwarded to the researcher
Researcher will contact participant to set up a mutually agreeable time to meet for the interview*