Advising, Course Registration and Schedules for First-Year Students

<https://inside.southernct.edu/advising/incoming-students>

New first-year students who have registered for an NSO by July 13th session will receive their full schedule of courses for Fall 2020 by the end of the day (5pm) on July 24th. They will receive an email from an academic advisor which goes into great detail regarding first-year student schedules. Your schedule will be based on your major, your English and Math placements, course availability, and the information you provide when you register for NSO! Students will be able to connect with an advisor if they have questions. If a student registered for NSO by July 13th and does not receive a schedule or email by the end of the day on July 24th, please email advisement@southernct.edu. Students that registered for NSO after July 13th will receive their schedules and emails after July 27th.

COVID Testing

<https://www.ct.edu/files/pdfs/UPDATE%206%20Interim%20Testing%20Guidance.pdf>

Residential Life is working with health services and the state guidelines to determine the details regarding the testing and move in protocol. According to the state guidelines provided in the link above, "Incoming residential students must have documentation that they have had a RT-PCR COVID-19 test within 14 days of arrival on campus. This documentation must be submitted online before arrival on campus or in person on arrival. " To clarify, students must be tested within fourteen days of prior to arrival. Please have your students watch their southern email accounts as information should be provided soon.

Fall 2020 Reopening

<https://inside.southernct.edu/reopening>

"Based on significant guidance from public health experts and in accordance with Governor Lamont's ReOpen CT Advisory Committee plan, it has been determined that Southern will reopen its physical campus to residential and commuter students for fall 2020, with protocols in place. Fall classes will begin on August 26, following a staggered move-in for residence hall students."

This website (<https://inside.southernct.edu/reopening> ) will continue to be updated and has all of the information regarding the university's plan to reopen.
