We are seeking new ensemble members to join the Out of Bounds cast. This play is a BRAND NEW original production, created by the students over the past 7 weeks in the Devising Theatre course. We are adding new content to the show, and need NEW ACTORS to add in their unique perspectives.

The play explores both the literal and metaphorical meanings of the phrase “out of bounds.” Where are we allowed to go, and where are we forbidden? Who are we allowed to be? What is out of bounds? When should we follow rules, and when MUST we step out of line to challenge those rules? What ties us to the past? How can we evolve into something better? The play explores such topics as gender, Black stories, being a 1st generation college student, relationships, family—and “found” family, and this “world on fire” we find ourselves living in today. No previous theatre experience necessary. Just a desire to be on stage, and share your voice.

This is not a typical audition. You do not need to prepare a speech. We are looking for people who want to join this highly collaborative process. We seek performers willing to bring ideas into the room, and who are also able to step back and collaborate well with team members and get on board with the existing content. Some current cast members will be in the room during the auditions. We will play games, CREATE short pieces of theatre together, and see who gels well with the group!

Please wear comfortable clothes that you can move in. Hope to see you there!
