IV. Unfinished Business

A. None.

V. New Business:

- A. Jonathan Wharton raised concerns regarding the shooting in Utah and faculty concerns regarding what faculty might say, and potential consequences as a result. Is there support for academic freedom, will there be a protocol, and what is AAUP's stance?
  - 1. Joan Weir shared discussion on WCSU ICE raids, universities are more concerns with student safety and wellbeing.
  - 2. Paul Petrie shared insight that the former interim president expressed faith in the legal process, and that eventually that will protect faculty. The system office indicated that they are following their procedures to check the legal state versus Federal. Given the Federal administration lack of respect for the judicial system. This issue is on the agenda for the first meeting with the provost and interim president. This needs to be pushed in a lot of ways since.
  - 3. Further discussion was had amongst senators regarding educators' freedoms in the classroom, conversation will be discussed with the AAUP.

Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 1:15pm.
