CRAG Rubric (Spring 2020)

1. Title: _____

2. Name of Main Contact: _____

3. The proposal has well defined outcomes:                                    ____Yes ____No (1 pt)

4. The proposal has outcomes that are meaningfully assessed and evaluated.     ____Yes ____No (1 pt)

5. The proposal has a clearly articulated timeline.                           ____Yes ____No (1 pt)

6. The proposal has a clearly explained cost structure.                       ____Yes ____No (1 pt)

7. The proposal has potential for significant, positive impact in relation to costs.     ____Yes ____No (1 pt)

8. Scope of project:

    a. 8 pts:   Clearly a significant curriculum-related project that is likely to impact student learning positively
    b. 6 pts:   Somewhat impacts curriculum and student learning outcomes
    c. 4 pts:   Assessment of existing courses, some revisions
    d. 2 pts:   Indirectly contributes to a curriculum-related project
    e. 0 pt:    Definitely not curriculum-related (travel, research, faculty development)

9. Above and Beyond Expectations for Normal Course Preparation

    a. YES    (6 pts):    Significant project with time clearly indicated
    b. yes    (4 pts):    Additional summer work with time indicated
    c. maybe  (2 pts):    Appears to be additional work, time not clearly indicated
    d. no     (0 pt):     No additional work, additional time not clear
    e. NO     (0 pt):     Clearly not significantly different from normal course preparation

10. Impact

    a. 3 pts:   Interdisciplinary/GenEd/University-wide
    b. 3 pts:   Program-wide
    c. 2 pts:   Multiple courses
    d. 2 pts:   Multiple sections of a course
    e. 1 pt:    One section of a course

11. Other: Criteria from call for Proposals (writing courses, innovations in technological or online learning, incorporating social justice pedagogy into curricula, program development, interdisciplinary collaborations and other developments that further the goals of the Liberal Education Program, program revisions for accreditation, and departments' academic strategic plans)

    a. 3 pts:   Addresses 3 or more areas of focus from the CFP
    b. 2 pts:   Addresses 2 areas of focus from the CFP
    c. 1 pt:    Addresses 1 area of focus from the CFP
    d. 0 pts:   Does not address an area of focus from the CFP

_____ / 25 pts                                            Recommend for funding ____ Yes ____ No