DIGITAL HUMANITIES

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

18 Credits Required Including

- Select 1 course from the following
  - Digital Foundations of Art 1
  - Introduction to Digital Humanities
  - Introduction to Drone Technology
  - Digital Media Skills
  - Women, Gender, Community, and Technology
- Additional course options and requirements as outlined in the University Catalog

COMPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINES

- Data Science: Analyze large datasets
- Linguistics: Apply language analysis techniques
- History: Interpret digital cultural artifacts and their contexts
- Marketing: Craft digital engagement strategies
- Philosophy: Examine digital ethics

CAREER CONNECTIONS

Digital Humanities equips graduates with a blend of humanities expertise and digital skills, making them well-suited for careers in fields such as research, cultural institutions, and technology-driven communication.

- User Experience (UX) Designer
- Social Media Coordinator
- Web Content Editor
- Digital Archivist

SCAN HERE TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN MAJOR?