

POLITICAL ECONOMY

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

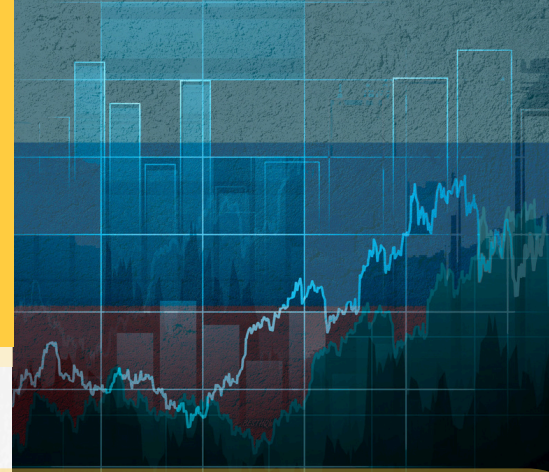

18 Credits Required Including

- Select 9 credits from the following
 - Macro-Economic Analysis
 - Micro-Economic Analysis
 - Development Economics
 - Labor Economics
 - Economic Data Analysis
 - Urban Economics
- Additional course options and requirements as outlined in the University Catalog.

CAREER CONNECTIONS

Political economy cultivates skills in critical analysis, leadership, and economic insight. Graduates can explore careers in public policy, international development, and economic consulting.

- Community Organizer
- Economic Consultant
- Government Affairs Assistant
- Legislative Assistant

COMPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINES

- Geography: Analyze factors that influence urban development patterns
- Real Estate: Evaluate property market impact, community growth and sustainability
- Sociology: Decode policy-shaping social structures
- Urban Affairs: Dissect how political and economic factors shape urban policies

SCAN HERE TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN MAJOR?

