

REAL ESTATE

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

18 Credits Required Including

- Urban Economics
- Principles of Real Estate
- Real Estate Finance
- Seminar in Real Estate
- Real Estate Law
- Additional course options and requirements as outlined in the University Catalog.

CAREER CONNECTIONS

The real estate career market in Connecticut is promising, with steady demand for roles like real estate agents, brokers, and property managers.

. This combination of skills equips graduates with a broad understanding of real estate markets, financial analysis, and strategic planning, making them versatile professionals in the industry

- Real Estate Agent
- Property Management Assistant
- Real Estate Analyst
- Administrative Assistant

COMPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINES

- Economics: Integrate market analysis insights
- Environmental Science: Implement sustainable practices
- Geographic Information Science and Technology: Utilize spatial and temporal relationships
- Marketing: Craft property promotion strategies
- Urban Affairs: Design land use plans

SCAN HERE TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN MAJOR?

