

SOCIAL SCIENCE

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

18 Credits Required Including

- Select 9 credits from the following
  - Cultural Anthropology
  - Principles of Macroeconomics
  - Principles of Microeconomics
  - People, Places and Environments
  - World Regional Geography
  - Western Civilization
- Additional course options and requirements as outlined in the University Catalog.

COMPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINES

- Anthropology: Investigate cultures, societies and human development across time
- Latin American and Caribbean Studies: Explore regional socio-political dynamics
- Public Health: Address health disparities and their social determinants
- Urban Affairs: Analyze social issues in urban environments and craft sustainable community solutions

CAREER CONNECTIONS

Social Science allows scholars to develop a deep understanding of human behavior and societal structures, equipping individuals with critical thinking and analytical skills.

- Research Assistant
- Public Relations Assistant
- Social Services Assistant
- Community Outreach Coordinator

SCAN HERE TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN MAJOR?

