

URBAN AFFAIRS

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

18 Credits Required Including

- U.S. Government
- Urban Politics
- Select 12 credits from the following
 - Race and Ethnicity in American Politics
 - State and Local Government
 - Public Leadership
- Additional course options and requirements as outlined in the University Catalog.

COMPLEMENTARY DISCIPLINES

- Environmental Studies: Design sustainable urban communities
- Geography: Map spatial relationships and optimize land use in urban planning
- Public Health: Examine health disparities and access to services in urban populations
- Real Estate: Investigate Property development and market trends in urban areas

CAREER CONNECTIONS

Urban Affairs prepares graduates to tackle pressing urban issues such as housing, transportation, and community revitalization.

- Urban Planner Assistant
- Transportation Planner
- Economic Development Assistant
- Civic Engagement Coordinator

SCAN HERE TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN MAJOR?

