Position Description:

Marketing Specialists report directly to the IT Coordinator. They serve as social media and marketing strategists for the Office of Residence Life and seek to engage residential students across multiple social media platforms and on departmental webpages. Students will gain experience developing and executing marketing and social media campaigns and will develop and manage marketing strategies. These skills will make students very marketable to future employers.
Job Duties:

- Assist the department with social media and web-based marketing techniques to increase visibility, membership and traffic on our website and social media platforms.
- Experiment with new and alternative ways to leverage social media activities-marketing.
- Monitor trends in website and social media tools, trends and applications and appropriately apply that knowledge to increase the use of social media on campus.
- Develop recommendations with the Residence Life staff and others across campus to incorporate relevant social media techniques into the higher education culture and all of Southern’s marketing efforts.
- Track and measure the impact of social media campaigns on the overall marketing efforts of the department.
- Attend departmental events and activities to share across web and social media platforms.
- Create content including but not limited to video, photo, animated, and flyer content.
- Maintaining a presence on Instagram, Facebook, Youtube, and trending social media platforms.
