

YOUTH POWER & AGENCY

Course description

Intersectional examination of child and youth social agency and power in contemporary society. Examination of youth culture, social institutions and systems serving children and youth, social control of children and youth, child and youth justice movements, and emerging adulthood. Emphasis on child and youth empowerment.

Who should take this course?

- Students interested in exploring and discussing theories and policies about children's place in the world.
- Students who are or who will work or live with children in their homes or communities (i.e. everyone).

SOC 599: YOUTH POWER & AGENCY

ONLINE
ASYNCHRONOUS
(WITH OPTIONAL VIRTUAL MEETINGS)

SUMMER SESSION
A6: MAY 22-JULY 2

DR. JESSICA
KENTY-DRANE,
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

3 CREDITS

FOR MORE INFORMATION
PLEASE CONTACT
DR. KENTY-DRANE

kentydranej1@southernct.edu
OR
(203) 392-5689