

TRAFFIC STOP PRACTICE FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH ASD

Presented by the SCSU Center of Excellence on Autism Spectrum Disorders and Southern Police.

ABOUT

DETAILS

Participants will get the opportunity to review and practice the process of a routine traffic stop with the Southern Police. They will also learn how to use the DMV “Blue Envelope.” Participants will need to use their own vehicles for the practice sessions.

Who?

Drivers with autism must have a current license, car, registration, and insurance.

A support person is welcome to attend.

Where?

SCSU School of Business Building and Parking Lot 12.

When?

April 30, 2022
8 am – 1 pm

To register, email asd-center@southernct.edu and include “Traffic Stop Practice” as the subject. Please include the driver’s name, phone number, email, and physical address in the email. You will receive a confirmation email once processed.

University Covid-19 procedures will be in place, information can be found at <https://inside.southernct.edu/reopening/protocols-mitigation-strategies>