CASAS has approved me for an accommodation allowing me to receive copies of faculty-created PowerPoints, and other slides, documents, images, charts, diagrams, etc. presented in class (“Presentation Materials”). Faculty are not required to create Presentation Materials solely for my benefit. However, if they project or otherwise use Presentation Materials in class, I will be provided copies, subject to the terms and conditions below, which I understand, acknowledge, and agree are binding on me:

1. I acknowledge that my professor does not share Presentation Materials with students unless they have been specifically approved for this accommodation by CASAS.
2. My professor is sharing copies of the Presentation Materials with me solely for my personal use in studying and preparing for this class, in accordance with my approved accommodation(s).
3. I will not copy, share, post, transfer, allow others to view, or otherwise distribute the Presentation Materials by any method whatsoever, including making extra copies, uploading them to file-sharing sites or posting them to the internet.
4. The Presentation Materials are the intellectual property of my professor and as such, are considered sources, the use of which is governed by federal copyright laws and SCSU’s rules of academic conduct.
5. I will destroy all copies of the Presentation Materials when I no longer need them for my academic work in the class, but no later than the end of the semester in which I take the class.
